

PRESS-RELEASE

The Minister of the Public Service and Administrative Reform hereby informs the general public that, following instructions from the President of the Republic as a solution to the preoccupation raised by some Anglophones Lawyers, two competitive examinations for the special recruitment of 50 (fifty) Pupil Magistrates and 30 (thirty) student Court Registrars of English expression into the Magistracy and Registry Division of the National School of Administration and Magistracy (NSAM) for the 2017/2018 academic year have been launched.

The ministerial Orders launching the examinations can be consulted at the notice board of the central Services of the Ministry, its Regional Delegations or the website: <http://www.minfopra.gov.cm>.

Candidates wishing to sit for the examinations are informed that the written part shall be done exclusively in the English language and shall take place in the headquarters of the following Regions: Centre, North, North West and South West.

Furthermore, as has been a tradition the regular competitive entrance examinations into the Magistracy and Registry Division, Administrative Division as well as Revenue Services Division of NSAM shall be launched in the days ahead.
